1. In the future all Yugoslav business in Trieste will be handled through the Yugoslav Trade Delegation, which has established its office in via Valdorivo 31.
2. The heads of the delegation are men named Hecavar, Krapotic, and Ing. Butic. A staff of 20 employees is planned.
3. The Trade Delegation has been authorized to issue permits for entering Yugoslavia only to residents of the Free Territory of Trieste who wish to visit Yugoslavia for commercial reasons.
4. The real task of the delegation is to attempt to achieve an agreement with AMG whereby Trieste industry would be geared to meet Yugoslavia's needs. AMG has in the past favored Italy, thereby strengthening the link between Italian and Trieste industry. Yugoslavia will offer raw materials as compensation on a barter basis.
